

Remark Holdings Invited to Present at 4th World Internet Conference in China

LAS VEGAS, Nov. 27, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Remark Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: MARK), a global technology company focused on artificial intelligence, was selected to be one of 35 VIP speakers to present at the 4th World Internet Conference. Past speakers include the founders of leading Chinese companies like Alibaba, Tencent, Xiaomi, Baidu and JD.com. Remark Holdings' Chairman and CEO Kai-Shing Tao will be speaking to the more than 1,500 attendees representing guests from governments, international organizations, enterprises, technical communities and non-governmental organizations from around the world to discuss the digital economy, cutting-edge technology, the Internet and society, cyberspace governance and exchanges and cooperation in five aspects focused on the theme of "Promoting Open and Shared Digital Economy - Building a Community of Destiny in Cyberspace Together."

The 4th World Internet Conference will be held in Wuzhen, Tongxiang, Zhejiang from December 3, 2017 to December 5, 2017. This is the largest and highest-level Internet conference held by China and is also the summit of the world's Internet field.

"We are honored that we were chosen to be among the presenters at this year's conference," stated Mr. Tao. "This represents another affirmation of the hard work we put into developing our leading-edge artificial intelligence platform."

The conference is a world-wide Internet event sponsored by the People's Republic of China, held annually in Wuzhen, China, aiming to build an international platform for Internet connectivity between China and the world and China's Internet sharing and governance Platform for all countries to seek consensus in the controversy, seek cooperation in consensus, and create win-win cooperation. More information regarding the conference can be found at www.wicwuzhen.cn.
